

GSSI Young Scholar Travel Grant

This travel grant is offered to young scholars from "outside of Europe" to attend the annual ECSS congress. Young researchers (32 years of age or younger at the time of the Congress) working in the field of sports nutrition and hydration are encouraged to apply for the GSSI travel grant. Please note that the ECSS membership is mandatory for the application. The GSSI travel grant goes to three selected candidates and they will receive the amount of 2.000,-€ each to cover travel expenses for the ECSS Congress.

Please be so kind and fill in all three sections of this document (CV, publication list and letter of motivation) to apply for the grant and send it as one pdf file to office@sport-science.org. Application deadline is 15th March, 2017 and notification to applicants will be on 1st April, 2017.

Many thanks and good luck for your application!
